ON THE TRACK. PONIES PREPARING FOR NEXT RACES. TO-DAY'S GALLOPS.

Some First-Rate Performances Recorded.

This morning nearly all the ponies entered for the second extra race meeting to be run off on Saturday, March 21, were at work on the inside course at Happy Valley.

As most of the candidates have been kept in trim since the annual meeting and the first extra meeting, a course of hard training will not be necessary. Accordingly, trainers were content to send their charges along for canter and slow gallops.

It is interesting to note that some of the ponies which had reputations before the annual meeting, but disappointed, have improved considerably. More upsets might be looked forward to on Saturday week.

Among the ponies which have come along is Mr. H. P. White's Gypsy Love, one of this year's griffins. This morning, with a riding-boy up, he was clocked over three quarters of a mile in 1.39, with the last quarter about .29. His condition is such that it is felt in certain quarters that with a suitable jockey on his back, he might even spell danger for Grey Morn, favourite for the First Aggregate Stakes. Gypsy Love is also entered for the three quarter mile and the mile and a quarter handicaps.

Another pony which pleased its supporters this morning was Mr. Bagram's Gypsy. Ridden by Mr. Harriman, he finished convincingly with a "free amah," Pen-castle having gone out to do the work for Nuggett and thereby rendering service.

Mr. Eric Moller, who came down from Shanghai to ride for Sir Paul at the annual meeting and stayed over for the first extra meeting, is reported as likely to be here again for the second extra meeting. It is mentioned that he will steer some of Mr. Dunbar's ponies and two or three others. Here again, gossip is busy. Curiosity Shop won at the first extra meeting with Mr. Moller up; the rumour this time is that the Shop pony may be a candidate for the Stakes if Mr. Moller is free to ride.

Beauty Dahlia, which provided some of the rodeo stunts in the early days of training, has now submitted to treatment. He has been entered for some of the events and may prove worth watching.

Of the other "straw and white" ponies, Mystic Dahlia and Stunner Dahlia have been sent to Shanghai, ostensibly to run in the spring meeting. Mystic won the Governor's Cup and finished dead-heat (first) in one of the Off-Day handicaps. Stunner was entered but did not run. He has been passed by the Shanghai stewards and his chances—against accepted China ponies—are not unfavourable.

ST. PAUL'S FUND.

H.K. A.D.C. CONTRIBUTION.

Reuters, Ltd., send the China Mail for publication the following letter:

Hongkong, March 10, 1925.
F. REYNOLDS JONES, Esq.,
Reuters, Limited, Hongkong.

Dear Mr. Jones,—Further to mine of February 24, I now beg to inform you that the total gross receipts at the performance of "St. Joan" in aid of the St. Paul's Cathedral Restoration Fund amounted to $2,064.85. The out-of-pocket expenses in connection with same were $284, leaving a net balance of $1,780.85. At exchange 2/3 3/4 and stamps this gives value in sterling £304.18 9 for which amount I beg to enclose D.D. on London for "St. Paul's" Fund on behalf of our A.D.C.

I should like to add that, for this satisfactory result, thanks are due to Mrs. Holyoak, who organised, and the ladies who undertook the sale of the tickets, programmes, chocolates, etc., also others who contributed by gifts and donations and also the City Hall Committee for the free use of the theatre. I should also like to mention the Peak Tramway Company who generously handed over the receipts for the special cars on the night of the production.

Publication of this letter will explain the position to all who so kindly helped towards the above result—I am,

Yours faithfully,
W. A. HANNIBAL,
Hon. Secretary and Treasurer,
Hongkong A.D.C.

DIVIDENDS FOR 1924. YOKOHAMA SPECIE BANK.

The Hongkong branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank, Ltd., is in receipt of a cablegram from its Head Office to the effect that at the half yearly meeting of shareholders held at the Head Office of this Bank at Yokohama on the 10th inst., the report showed a net profit of ¥14,417,952.77, including ¥5,268,835.60 carried over from the last account.

It was resolved to pay a dividend of 12 per cent. p.a. (absorbing ¥6,000,000) for 1924; to add to the reserve fund ¥3,000,000; and to carry forward the sum of ¥5,417,952.77 to the next account.

"PUSHING" RUM. TINFOIL MANUFACTURER SUES DISTILLER.

AGREEMENT NOT FULFILLED.

A tin-foil manufacturer of Macao sued a rum distiller of Hongkong, in the Summary Court, this morning for $1,000 expenses incurred as the latter's agent.

The defendant's rum was used in the manufacture of tobacco and as the plaintiff's tin-foil was used in the packing of cigarettes, the plaintiff said that the defendant employed him to "push" his rum among the cigarette manufacturers of his acquaintance.

An agreement was drawn up in which the B.A.T. was particularly mentioned. This was the "bone of contention," the defendant claiming that, because the plaintiff had not gone to Shanghai to see the B.A.T. representatives there, he had not fulfilled the terms of the agreement.

CANTON'S WAR.

Startling Forecasts By Officer.

LIN FU'S POSITION.

HOW THE MILITARY CON-TROL IS DIVIDED.

Startling forecasts as to the Canton situation for the near future have been made by a staff officer in General Chan Kwing-ming's army. This officer is attached to Hung Shui-lun's headquarters and came down to Hongkong when the debacle became inevitable. He alleged that Chan Kwing-ming has played Lin Fu's hands by providing him with munitions and money, whereas Lin is remaining idle.

Further, he predicts that the time is not far off when the Yunnanese—who now garrison Canton—will make peace with Lin Fu; and that the Yunnanese, with Lin as their lieutenant, will hold the heart of the province.

It should be noted that General Yang Hsiang, commander-in-chief of the Yunnanese armies in Kwang-

WORLD'S BIGGEST INDOOR ARENA.

This is the architect's sketch of the world's biggest indoor amphitheatre, work on which has just been begun in New York. The building will be known as "Madison Square Garden," although it is more than two miles from Madison Square, as it is expected to take the place of Stanford White's masterpiece, which is to be torn down soon. The new building, which is to open in October, will seat 24,000—or 9,000 more than the Olympia in London, now the world's largest covered arena. It will cost £1,100,000.

PEAK FLATS.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOUSE HUNTERS.

ACTIVITY RESUMED.

Prospects of Rural Lands Company's Work.

The subject of much comment by Peak residents has been the recent activity on what is generally referred to as the "Peak Flats" land near the Peak Hotel.

Operations on this, it will be remembered, ceased to all intents and purposes about six months ago owing to the alleged defaulting of the contractor, but of late the sound of much hammering has drawn the attention of many a passer-by who may or may not have noticed that the site has now been completely cleared and concrete piers laid down.

As there was plenty of evidence of the demand for flats when the Rural Lands Development Co. first announced particulars of the scheme (applications from double the number of people it would be possible to accommodate having been received by them) the "China Mail" approached the Company this morning with the view of obtaining particulars of the latest prospects in regard to the provision of what will undoubtedly be very modern flats fitted out with latest improvements for those who recognise the benefits of Peak life but who do not see their way clear to setting up a large establishment.

Mr. E. A. Long, of that Company, informed our representative that arrangements had now been made for the completion of the work by other responsible contractors who had been accepted by Messrs. Palmer and Turner, the architects. The Company was still confronted with difficulties in connection with the work. The restriction as to hours during which Stubbs Road could be used made difficult the work of transporting material and a greater number of trips than would otherwise be necessary were necessitated by the regulations regarding the tonnage capacity of trucks.

The work was proceeding apace, added Mr. Long, not only on the actual scene of operations, but at the workshops below, where woodwork and other materials were being finished off in readiness for the time when the work reached the stage at which they would be required.

It is anticipated that the flats, which are to number 24, will be ready for use in about fourteen months' time.

FACTORY BLAZE.

TWO STOREYED BUILDING
GUTTED.

A two-storeyed building at Pine Street, Talkoktsui used as a brass foundry and glass factory, was completely gutted in a fire which broke out yesterday afternoon. Only the bare walls were left standing, and the contents were also damaged to the point of uselessness.

The Kowloon Fire Brigade sent appliances immediately on a call being received at 3.45 p.m., but the fire had secured a good hold on the building, and it was not until four hours later that they were able to return to their station.

FIND ON A STEAMER.

TWO PERSONS TAKEN
— INTO CUSTODY.

Following the discovery of two automatics, two magazines and 200 rounds of ammunition on board the Hakone Maru yesterday, a Japanese member of the crew and a woman were taken into custody. They were formally charged at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning and remanded.

The Rev. H. du T. Pyner of the staff of the Diocesan Boys School is going home on leave this month. Mr. Pyner took a prominent part in the A. D. C.'s recent production of "Saint Joan."

COLLISION IN HARBOUR.

SLIGHT DAMAGE TO THE LING SHAN.

Yesterday morning, there was a collision in the harbour between two local steamers. The Ling Shan (Chilean flag) was slightly damaged.

The Chinese captain of the Ling Shan states that he got back from Canton about 9.30 a.m. and steamed up the fairway looking for a vacant buoy. Not finding one he turned back. On seeing the Nam Wah leave buoy No. C19 he made for it.

According to the Ling Shan's captain, the s.s. Lok Sang then came towards the fairway from the direction of Stonecutter's Island, going toward that part of the harbour between buoys No. C16 and C18.

When about a hundred yards from his objective, the Ling Shan's captain heard three blasts from the Lok Sang. He replied with one and went astern, he alleges, but was struck on the starboard bow by the Lok Sang.

FOR ANEURISM, CANCER ETC.

A new medicine for the cure of Aneurism, Cancer and Carbuncle by Injection and Internal use.

Most physicians and surgeons have expressed the opinion that Aneurism, Cancer and Carbuncle, incurable and many deaths have been caused by these dread diseases. Dr. T. Matsushima, M. B., Professor of the Japanese Imperial University has made a careful study of these diseases for several years and has at last discovered the use of "CARCINOLYSIN" for injection and internal use. A large number of Japanese patients have been cured by the use of this medicine and it is now becoming well known for its curative properties.

Foreigners have always died of these diseases owing to failure to find a remedy. Of late Dr. Sun Yat Sen is suffering from cancer of the liver which is a phase of one of the above-mentioned diseases. Those suffering from this disease will gradually develop fever, nervousness, urinary trouble, and appetite decreases and vomiting.

Victims of this disease are advised to immediately procure "CARCINOLYSIN" from our agents and by taking this internally, or by injection, the progress of the disease will be stopped and a rapid cure obtained. Cancer glands will disappear and swollen ulcers be reduced to a minimum quickly and easily by the use of "CARCINOLYSIN".

Those having hereditary disease are advised to take "CARCINOLYSIN" in order to check its activities.

This medicine is the result of long experiment and has no injurious effect on those taking it.

CHINA'S EMIGRANTS.

BIG SUMS OF MONEY FROM AMERICA.

At a luncheon the other day, (says the San Francisco correspondent of a "Shanghai paper") I met an influential Chinese here, whose grandfather was born in the United States, so that it will be seen that the man to whom I was talking is much more of an American than a Chinese. I was astounded to hear his report, which I wish I could publish, on the amounts of money that the Chinese on this coast send regularly to China. It is well known that the remittances from, and money brought in by, Chinese emigrants are considerable.

During the past two or three decades there had been a very large stream of emigration from China most of the emigrants poor when they arrive in other countries, but the most frugal people in the world. These newly arrived have always some relative to maintain in China, and they send a good part of their savings to them and to their friends at home, which sums are used to enable others to emigrate to the land of plenty.

Anyone who has lived in the Straits knows how this method works, but not only in the Straits, but in Java, the Pacific Coast, South Africa, and practically all countries in the world, excepting those who bar them. A reference to any "silver circular" will show the enormous amounts of money that are remitted from San Francisco to Hongkong alone. Far Eastern readers know well enough how for all intents and purposes the Chinese control tin mining in Malaya, where they have also a fair hold on rubber; how they have made great inroads on the wholesale trade of all the territory around the equator, where they have for decades had a large percentage of the retail trade in their hands, and so forth. And the same condition of things can be seen in Mexico and the Central American countries—practically all the retail trade is done by them and nobody can compete. It can be argued, therefore, that the prosperity of the countries to which they emigrate is a fine thing for the Motherland.

It is estimated that between 7,000,000 and 10,000,000 Chinese are outside of China, and it is safe to say that nine-tenths of them are regular remitters of money to their homeland. Of course, Sun Yat-sen would be able to supply much more detailed information on this subject, for he knows that had it not been for the Chinese emigrant he would have fallen by the wayside long ago and his revolutionary plans of earlier life gone for naught. It was the emigrant who enabled Sun, in 1911, to control no less a sum than $5,000,000 good Hongkong dollars raised by telegraphic request from the Straits alone, not to mention enormous sums which Chinese in this part of the world sent over.

LET US ALL HEAR BIG BEN

There is a man in Borneo who says he has heard "Big Ben" by the simple process of listening-in.
There are those in Hongkong who are not of the De Rougemont type.
They are more modest and admit having heard Shanghai. This is certainly interesting. So far Hongkong Broadcasters have not had that measure of help from the Authorities which we are inclined to think they deserve. Broadcasting is not to be hindered, and with safeguards in force preventing listeners hearing no good of other people, there is surely no reason why those who are interested in this phase of scientific progress should not be allowed to follow their bent. There was—perhaps is—a local Radio Society. Ver-dot Society now? Moribund doubtless. Dead perhaps all through the want of a little encouragement from those who have it in their power to give it.
Perhaps the news of the success of listening-in with Shanghai will help to stir the dry bones with a little life. Petition the Government. Call upon the Colonists.President of the Society—and perhaps the necessary permission will be given to broadcast anywhere and at any time. We offer exclusive publicity to the first Hongkong enthusiast who hears
"Big Ben"—and we shall not ask him to prove what he says!

Water.

Rain, according to that book of short stories, Chambers's Dictionary, is water from the clouds in drops. And at the moment that is the Colony's need—although with a four months' supply in Hongkong and a six months' supply in Kowloon, the need may not appear to be very pressing.
No sporting chances are to be taken by those responsible for seeing that there is a reasonable supply, or rather conserving it, and as it is more than likely we shall be having rain "soon," and schemes are afoot, some nearing completion, which will ensure no quarrels in the future, there is no need to worry. Amateur gardeners may continue to water their plants three times in the day;
their conscience clear, because the plight of the Ancient Mariner will not become theirs. There will be water everywhere, and many a drop to drink. Does anyone know what revenue the Government receives by way of water rates?
We do not. All we know is that the Public Works Department has estimated to spend $12,000 on chloronomes for filter beds, and that more than $250,000 is to be spent during the year on the maintenance of water works, in addition to a big wages bill, etc.
This is for Hongkong. For Kowloon the sum is $36,000; and for the New Territories, $8,000. These figures may convey some idea of the extent of the Colony's water works and what responsibilities are mixed up with the word Government.

Oxford and Cambridge.

There is an Oxford and Cambridge Society in Hongkong which meets annually round what is called "the festive board." They do these things, as Mr. Lawrence Stearns might have said, better at home. For we read that "Oxford beat Cambridge at boxing by five out of two events at Oxford."
What "five out of two events" means is not quite clear. But let it pass. Cannot the members of the Hongkong Society do better at home?staging a dinner, organize some athletic events? They could have the dinner as well, and live over-again the days of Compton Mackenzie's "Sinister Street"—at least that part of the story which gives such an excellent description of University life. They have gone one step in this direction in giving us a cricket match, but this is so gently done as to create no stir at all. We mean it does not fill us with that awe conducing to hushed tones when speaking of graduates of these two Universities. An American, writing of Oxford University, says that a "varsity degree and the 'five are very much akin; both kill ambition." This is a personal opinion and nothing at all to do with the suggestion that the annual meetings of graduates of these two Universities in Hongkong partake of something a little more exciting than a dinner.

Girl Guides.

The Preston magistrate has remarked on the fact that no scouts or members of boys brigades ever appear before him.
He might also have added Girl Guides, for they come within the same category. Saturday's entertainment and display of the Hongkong section seems to have been remarkable in at least one respect.
It gave opportunity for Lady Stuart Taylor to say that during the year 114 efficiency badges were worn, the most popular ones being for domestic service, child nursing, and ambulance. This proves that the movement amongst girls does not—shall we say?—unsex them. A movement that can foster the instincts of service usually attributed to feminine natures is to be encouraged in the work it is doing—especially in a place where the inclination is probably to take things easily. The Scout Commissioner's belief that the royal road to happiness is through brotherhood, sisterhood, and service, will find general acceptance. Girl Guides and Boy Scouts should count themselves very fortunate in being led by those who practise what they preach—very often an unusual thing.

DISH WASHING ROW.

SOLDIERS FALL OUT.

TRIAL OF PRIVATE AT COURT MARTIAL.Claims for priority at dishwashing are alleged to have brought on a row which resulted in a District Court Martial at Murray Barracks this morning.
Private John Simpson, East Surrey Regiment, was charged with striking Lance-Corporal F. Bayard, of the same regiment.Major Drake, East Surrey Regiment, sat as President. Lieut.
P. H. Drake-Brockman was "prisoner's friend," and Lieut. A. E.
Cottam prosecuted.In his evidence, Lance-Corporal Bayard told the Court that after dinner on the day in question, he was washing his plate when accused came up from behind and stuck his plate in. On witness ordering accused to take his plate out, the latter maintained that he got there first.
He persisted in keeping his plate in the water. Witness tried to pull it out and accused pushed it in. The plate was slippery, fell to the floor, and broke.According to witness, accused then said that his plate had been broken and witness should get him another. On witness refusing, the private is alleged to have taken up a fighting attitude.
Witness turned round in time to avoid a blow. A struggle followed and both fell to the floor. Lance-Corporal Levy then came up and seized accused.Simpson pleaded "not guilty."
After further evidence was taken the Court rose. Its finding will be promulgated.

BOILING WATER.

CHARGE OF THROWING
AT WOMAN.A Chinese woman was taken to the Government Civil Hospital yesterday suffering from burns on the face, neck, and arms.A man now in the custody of the police is alleged to have thrown boiling water over the woman.

WOULD RISK HIS LIFE

DOCTOR'S EVIDENCE AS TO EYESIGHT.

CLAIM AGAINST SHIPPING CO.

"Dr. Bellios, whose standing is as high as any eye specialist in the Far East, has stated in his evidence that if he was the owner of a ship-of-bullion he would have no hesitation in employing the plaintiff to take charge of that ship."
said Mr. Zeldin at the Supreme Court this morning in the case in which Mr. Robert Kettlewell, master mariner, sues the China Navigation Co. for damages for alleged wrongful dismissal.Mr. F. C. Jenkin and Mr. Easley Zeldin (instructed by Mr. G. K.
Hall Branton) were for the plaintiff and Mr. Eldon, Potter, K. C.
(instructed by Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master), for the China Navigation Company.Mr. Aubrey indicated that he agreed with Dr. Bellios.
His Lordship: I do not think that that counts for much as evidence.Dr. Aubrey: I would go further and say that I would risk my life
on his word.His Lordship: Now that I consider, is evidence.
The evidence of Dr. Bellios, of Shanghai, which was read, was to the effect that he had examined the eyes of the plaintiff and was convinced that there would be no danger to the ship or his brother officers in Mr. Kettlewell taking charge of the bridge. The slight myopic condition of the eye was not likely to increase owing to the plaintiff's age even if he did not wear glasses.Dr. Aubrey, who was called immediately after this evidence had been read, said that with the glasses recommended by Dr.
Hargrove the plaintiff would have about the highest sight an ordinary man ever possessed. Very few people attained to better.Asked how long the effect of the drops in a person's eyes lasted, witness said usually about 48 hours, although it was possible for it to last longer. He always gave his patients a week between the drop insertion and the next consultation.Dr. Aubrey described in technical terms the effect of light on the pupils of a person who had not recovered from the insertion and said that it would cause blurred vision.

Case still proceeding.

EXCHANGE OF CLOTHES.

"HAMPSTEAD HEATH" IN LOCAL RESTAURANT.

YOUTHS CHANGE THEIR PLEA.

Scenes in a Chinese restaurant,
which counsel (Mr. F. C. Jenkin) suggested might have a rather unlucrative counterpart on Hampstead Heath on the occasion of any hilarious outing, were described in the Supreme Court this morning when there was an adjourned sitting of the Criminal Sessions.The prisoners, two Chinese youths charged with intimidation and robbery, caused a little consternation by pleading not guilty when counsel had entered a plea of guilty. A hurried consultation settled matters satisfactorily and prisoners assured His Lordship that they fully understood what they were doing when they changed their plea to one of guilty.The occurrences leading up to the taking of jewellery from two women the prisoners had taken to a restaurant were described.
The fathers of the youths were said by Mr. Jenkin to hold responsible positions and the offence, he claimed, was not so heinous as might be concluded from the wording of the charge.Just as a man and woman on Hampstead Heath who had reached a stage of intimacy might change hats one with the other, so there had been something similar in this case.Counsel was responsible for much amusement when he drew attention to a "swap" effected by one of the women and one of the prisoners. The prisoner was still wearing the woman's nether garments.His Lordship said that some men appeared to think that because a woman was of a certain class she had no rights, but this was wrong. She had her rights as well as anyone else. He was going to take a merciful view of this case but if it had been an ordinary criminal offence he would have dealt with it differently.Prisoners had already been in custody for two months and the sentence would be one day's imprisonment which would mean that they would be discharged.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SAVING WATER.

(To the Editor of the China Mail.)

Sir,—Is the Government really anxious to stop wastage of water? There is a famine due to the drought; due also, I think to a great and unnecessary misuse or waste of water.I have to use the tram-car daily to come into town. It passes some buildings in the course of its journey. There are piles of bricks stacked on the land. I have been struck with the sight of a man sputtering a generous stream of water over those bricks, each morning as I have passed. Is that kind of thing absolutely necessary?The Colony is over-run with gardens—rather plants in pots.
These are invariably watered three times a day—with good, clear, fresh water. Is that also absolutely necessary? Could there not be some saving in these two directions? And can you tell me how the water rate is apportioned?
Who pays it and on what basis? I find my water bill a very salutary lesson in the economics of use and waste. If each of us could be brought to see the need of care, it would be something in the right direction. Collect water rates from tenants and we should help provide a lesson.

Yours etc.,

HYDRANT.

GIRLS AND "SOCCER"

(To the Editor of the China Mail.)

Sir,—A. B. Horrence has again seen it fit to recant a portion of his first letter on the above subject for the third time. Isn't it high time for him to put the light out and drop off to sleep?To save him the trouble of repeating his favourite clause for the fourth time, I shall be obliged if you will kindly permit me to repeat (for his benefit, and his alone) that *All Chinese (ladies included) do attend these football matches for the purpose of cheering their favourites and that they are fully satisfied with the wonderful performance of the South China Team.*Isn't it possible for A. B. Horrence to swallow the hard fact that the Chinese have more than once cheered their favourites to victory?
The time has come when A. B.
Horrence should wake up, and leave other people (especially the ladies) alone!As I have mentioned before, it is really difficult to see why he is so much against the fairer sex attending football matches.
If he is aggrieved because the ladies gain admittance to the matches at a cheaper rate than himself, let him by all means, don a wig and skirt. Perhaps in his case, even this camouflage is not necessary!Why doesn't he start off on a new tack, and petition the Authorities for permission to drive a few patrol waggon down to the grounds, collect all the ladies present, and bundle them off to their respective homes? Or better still, get our worthy legislators to pass a measure whereby all the fairer sex shall be "protected"
from the sunshine and fresh air,
by keeping them locked indoors?
"Disappointed" for instance, ought to be only too pleased to second or sanction the motion.

Yours &c.,

Y. T. D.

struck as a protest against the levy

mean, says our Canton correspondent.On Monday, a large number of the people concerned (men women and children) landed at the West Bund and marched to small flags.

LINK WITH PAST.

SIR ALEXANDER HOSIE DEAD.
36 YEARS IN CHINA.

"On the Trail of the Opium Poppy."

Another link with the China of the Nineteenth Century has been snapped by the death in London of a distinguished British consular and legation official.

NOTABLE CAREER.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, March 11.
The death is announced of Sir Alexander Hosie.

Sir Alexander Hosie, M.A., LL.D., F.R.G.S., has long been associated with China. Born in 1853, he was educated at the Grammar School, Old Aberdeen, and King's College and University, Aberdeen.

He was appointed a student interpreter in China in 1876 and was employed on a special mission to Chungking in 1882.

Appointed Consul at Wuchow in 1897, he was appointed Consul at Kuikiang in 1900, but he did not take up that post, becoming Consul-General for the Province of Szechuen in 1902.

His next post was that of Consul-General at Tientsin which he held from 1908 to 1912, having already been Commercial Attaché to the British Legation in China for four years.

During his career Sir Alexander Hosie had a great deal to do with the opium question, on which he later wrote a book called "On the Trail of the Opium Poppy."

His first official mission in this respect was to act as British Delegate to the Shanghai International Opium Commission in 1909. A year later he was appointed personally to investigate the production of opium in China.

Sir Alexander Hosie retired in 1912 but he served as a special

DUBLIN, March 10.
Mr. de Valera denies all knowledge of the invitation mentioned in the Brussels message.

INCIDENT CLOSED.

KIRKWOOD'S SUSPENSION CANCELLED.

(Reuter's Service.)

The House of Commons unanimously passed a resolution moved by the Premier, Mr. Baldwin, terminating Mr. Kirkwood's suspension.

[Mr. Kirkwood, a Clyde Labour member, was suspended for persistently interrupting Mr. Austen Chamberlain's speech on foreign affairs.]

GENEVA OUTLOOK.

PARIS, March 10.
The French special correspondents at Geneva discuss the outlook at much length.

The "Petit Journal" says that there is an impression in Geneva that Britain and Germany are fighting the protocol and the Little Entente. It points out that six out of ten nations represented on the council have signed the protocol. Some of these intend to group themselves defensively, others are hesitating and anxious.

The "Ere Nouvelle" emphasises the impossibility of abandoning the present Polish frontiers.

The "Matin" declares it is the Dominions which will not consent to giving France a friendly guarantee. "Australia and New Zealand do not believe in an arbitration treaty with the yellow races. They want the British fleet to protect them. The Protocol will not be killed immediately. It must be rediscussed in September. There may be changes of opinion then if it is not replaced by a guarantee pact. If Japan then remains faithful to the idea of the protocol there might be a new movement which would place the British Empire in a disagreeable position."—Reuter.

attache to the British Legation from November 24, 1919, to February 11, 1920.

In addition to "On the Trail of the Opium Poppy," which he published in 1914, Sir Alexander Hosie published four other books—"Three Years in Western China," "Manchuria, its People, Resources and Rent History," and "Szechuen, its Products, Industries and Resources." He was also the editor of Phillips' Commercial Map of China.

Sir Alexander Hosie was twice married, his second wife being the eldest daughter of Professor W.E. Soothill, Professor of Chinese at Oxford University. Lady Hosie is the author of a book called "Two Gentlemen of China."

FORTY YEARS' DISPUTE.
PRESIDENT COOLIDGE ARBITRATES.

WASHINGTON, March 10.
President Coolidge's award in the dispute between Chile and Peru in regard to the Tacna-Arica territory orders a plebiscite to determine the question of sovereignty.

SANTIAGO DE CHILE, March 10.
The announcement of President Coolidge's award has caused rejoicing.

The Tacna-Arica controversy has been in progress for forty years since the treaty of Ancón in 1884 laid down that the Peruvian provinces of Tacna and Arica should continue in Chilean occupation for a decade, after which it should be determined by a plebiscite whether Peru or Chile should retain them. The winning country was to pay the loser ten million silver dollars.

The two countries in July 1922 appointed the President of the United States arbitrator for the interpretation of the treaty.

The disputed territory has an area of nine thousand square miles and a population of over thirty thousand. It is very arid but Arica is commercially important as it is the ocean terminus of the La Paz Railway.—Reuter's American Service.

FIND OF A TOMB.

CAIRO, March 10.
The American Archaeological mission under Dr. Reisner has discovered at Gizeh a Fourth Dynasty sarcophagus intact. It is believed to be the tomb of Senofru.—Reuter.

BOSTON, March 10.
Dr. Reisner who is visiting America from Egypt is of the opinion that the important find at Gizeh by his mission is not the tomb of Senofru but of a royal retainer. He believes the pyramid Dahshur is the tomb of Senofru.—Reuter's American Service.

LAND DISPUTE.

LONDON, March 10.
The Privy Council has dismissed the appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of the Straits Settlements, of December 22, 1923, disallowing the appeal of the Attorney General of the Straits Settlements against an order of Justice Barrett Lennard of Singapore, and disallowing the motion of the Attorney General for an order dismissing a petition of right presented by the respondent, Pang Ah-yew, claiming a declaration that the sale of certain lands by the Collector of Land Revenue in Malacca should be set aside, and an inquiry made in regard to damages or compensation to her for the loss of the property.—Reuter.

POSITION CRITICAL.

HOOK ON HOLLAND, March 10.
The position of the S.S. Sierra karta has become considerably worse. The vessel has not broken up but is bending. A lifeboat took on board of her crew this morning. The captain, pilot, mate and wireless operator are still aboard. (The S.S. Sierra karta was shipwrecked off the Hook of Holland during a gale. Attempts were made to pull her off, but all failed.)

Mr. Wong Ching-wai, who is with Dr. Sun at Peking, has cabled Wu Han-min, acting Governor, to send Dr. Li up as soon as possible.

The report also says that on Dr. Li's advice, instructions were cabled to Peking to use carminolytin and cancer serum from the Hamburg Serum Laboratory and according to the Berlin Cancer Institute.

A wave of applause swept the galleries when the rejection was announced.

GOLD FRANC DISPUTE.

LATEST REPORTS FROM PEKING.

REPORTED TO BE SETTLED.

(By Courtesy of Daily Bulletin.)

PEKING, March 10.
The persistent reports which the vernacular Press is publishing to the effect that the gold franc question has been settled, are, to say the least, premature.

One report says that Li Shih-hao discussed the matter with Chang Tso-lin during his recent visit to Mukden, proposing a settlement on the basis of payment at the rate existing when the last indemnity money was paid. In 1917, and Chang Tso-lin is reported to have agreed to this, but well-informed persons point out that this solution is unlikely to meet with French approval.

According to another but unconfirmed report, draft proposals have been forwarded to the French Government.

It is believed in many quarters that the matter is virtually settled, but that efforts are being made to find a formula which would "save the face" of the Chinese Government while practically granting the French demands.

INDIA'S PROBLEMS.

ARE THE REFORMS WORKING WELL?

COMMITTEE'S DIVIDED OPINIONS.

No Convincing Evidence of Failure.

How are the reforms working in India? This is a question that interests the whole Empire but it is a question that it would seem, is very difficult to answer.

TWO REPORTS MADE.

(Reuter's Service.)

Bombay, March 10.

The report of the Muddiman Committee appointed last year to enquire into the working of the reforms has been issued. There are majority and minority reports.

The former, observes that insufficient time has elapsed to form an opinion regarding the success of the constitution, but there is no convincing evidence that it has failed.

The minority report differs from this and holds that the reforms have been given a fair trial. The majority report recommends relaxation of the control of the Secretary of State over the Government of India in cases affecting purely Indian interests; joint deliberation between the two sides of the Government on important questions; and the Governor with minor exceptions should not dissent from the opinion of Ministers.

Further recommendations are designed to give a more effective hearing to dissenting minorities, whether ministers, officials or members of the legislature.

The report recommends that increased representation should be given to depressed classes and advises a revision of the Meston settlement at the earliest favourable opportunity.

The minority report demands the disappearance of Dyarchy and the substitution of provincial autonomy.

It hopes a serious attempt will be made in the near future to put the constitution on a permanent basis with provisions for further automatic progress.

[Sir Alexander Phillips Muddiman is the Home Member of the Executive Council of the Governor-General and Leader of the Assembly. He has held various other important posts in India. He entered the Indian Civil Service in 1897.]

Two of the starters gave up and the remainder were towed back after the time limit. The race will be re-sailed.

CHINESE Y.W.C.A.'S GOOD WORK.

MR. KOTEWALL'S EULOGY.

The fifth annual meeting of the Chinese Y.W.C.A. was held yesterday afternoon at the Association hall in the presence of a large gathering. Mrs. Wong Kwok-suen (Vice-President) took the chair in the absence of Mrs. Ma Ying-pin, and others on the platform were the Rev. Kwan Yiu-nam, superintendent of work amongst the Chinese of Vancouver, B.C., the Rev. Wong Oi-tong, pastor of the Rhenish Mission, the Hon. Mr. Kotewall, Mrs. Yung (Senior Chinese Secretary), Mrs. Ma Wing-chan (Treasurer), and the General Secretary, Miss Nell E. Elliott.

The proceedings commenced with a hymn and prayer by the Rev. Wong Oi-tong, after which Mrs. Wong Kwok-suen addressed the gathering. The election of Directors for the current year followed, the following being appointed:—Messrs. Wong Kwok-suen, Tam Wai-chi, Li Ting-shan, Chang Yue-sang, and Miss S. C. Webb.

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The fifth annual report of Miss Nell E. Elliott (General Secretary) read as follows:—

At the time of an annual meeting we look backward and forward. This year is a real milestone in our Association life because it marks our fifth year of organized effort. In looking back it is nearly ten years since a group of Hongkong women asked for an interview with the National Secretary, and requested that a Secretary be sent to help establish an Association here. In 1917 the Secretary arrived, and in 1918 pre-organization work was begun. For more than a year Bible classes, devotional meetings, and social gatherings were carried on in the old building used by the St. Paul's Girls' School. In 1920 these present quarters were found, and the Association was formally organized on March 10. There was a charter membership of 141, that has in these five years grown to 316. It has not much more than doubled, but it has had a steady, natural growth. The Association has met a need of self-expression in Christian service.

The staff has seen changes. At the beginning of last year we were glad to add Miss Myers to the staff of the Association. She had been loaned by the National Committee for a year. Shortly after, Miss Mackay left for her well-earned furlough. She has been greatly missed during the year. We had hoped now to be welcoming her back, but unfortunately, owing to family reasons, she has been indefinitely delayed. I take this opportunity of expressing my warmest appreciation of the unfailing devotion and loyalty of the present staff—Mrs. Yung, Miss Wong and Miss Lei. Mrs. Yung, the senior Chinese Secretary, takes much responsibility for the general work and full responsibility for the membership. Miss Wong gives special attention to the religious, educational and student work, and is also hostess for the hotel. Miss Lei has been giving her time to the Girls' work and to the Educational Department. Because of Miss Mackay's present delay in Canada and Miss Myers' transfer to Tainanfu, our staff is smaller, but we are greatly hoping before long to welcome a new worker from Canada.

In November we were delighted to have our first official visit from our former Secretary, Miss Shin, now one of the National Staff. Miss Shin was accompanied by Miss Severn, National City Secretary. During their visit the need for contributions for the National Work was emphasised. We are glad that our Association responded by raising $1,000—this in addition to this year's contribution of $500.

Health Centres:—We notice with pleasure that the Government is considering health inspection in the schools. We feel the Association is doing something for the pre-school child through our two Health Centres at the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. buildings on Thursday mornings. This work has been carried on continuously for about three years. During the last twelve months there has been an average attendance per week of thirty-four babies. The aim is to keep babies well. When he is brought in he is weighed, measured, examined, and, when necessary, given a prescription by the doctor. Since the same children come regularly, we feel the work is decidedly constructive. In order to increase its value we are hoping to secure the services of a well-qualified Chinese nurse to give further help to mothers by visiting in the homes.

Social Department:—A group of seven women has been responsible for the social gatherings which have given to the members of the Association opportunities for social intercourse and recreation. These have included informal parties at the Association with music and games, walking parties, lunch parties, and Christmas entertainments which always requires the largest hall we can find to accommodate those wishing to attend. There have been twelve gatherings in all with an average attendance of 104.

Educational Department:—The aim of this department of our work is to arrange classes and lectures of educational value. We have had classes in Chinese, Mandarin, English for beginners and more advanced pupils, home nursing and first aid to the injured, Chinese and foreign cooking, music, and a short course in elementary physiology. The total enrolment during the last two terms has been 174, an increase in attendance over last year of 24, which would indicate the growing need for such classes. The use of this work is not only to give women of leisure an opportunity of improvement of their minds but it is a means of approach to a few women requiring help along other lines.

Bible study groups have been arranged for non-Christians, beginners and leaders, in all 10 groups with an enrolment of 106. Before discontinuing our Bible groups during the hottest months of July and August, closing exercises were held with a special speakers. Twelve members of the Bible groups received special recognition for regular attendance throughout the year. The importance of Bible study cannot be over estimated, and we feel this year real progress has been made.

little has been done through Bible Study groups and devotional meetings. It is, of course, impossible to measure the things of the spirit, but the keen interest shown by members of the groups and by the leaders is an indication of growth.

Perhaps one of the greatest needs is more adequate accommodation. We have needed this for several years. The work has been cramped, but in the future, it will be hindered, unless we are able to get more space. We are still hoping a grant of land may be possible upon which a building to meet the need can be erected.

I should like to add one word in regard to a suitable site for the summer camp. There is no place where teachers, nurses and older students can get away for rest and recreation during the heat of the summer. Friends have kindly loaned their homes for the past three years, but the camp needs a permanent home of its own. There may be someone here to-day who is in a position to help us obtain this.

It is not, I think, too much to say that the Association has been of real and vital value to the community. The past five years have been rich in opportunities and we believe we have taken advantage of some of them. But to-day, we think of the possibilities of the future. There has never been such a time of change and unrest, yet unrest is a sign of vitality. If we have courage and faith to work, all this unrest and change will lead to greater things.

Upon an Association such as ours rests a heavy responsibility and a great opportunity, for we are called to have some share in bringing in a new order which will include all that is best of the past and present; to it we must bring an open mind in planning for the future.

As we enter the new year, through all our activities we want to share increasingly with the women of this community something of our belief in the life of the Spirit, of real belief in God as our Father, in Jesus Christ as our Elder Brother, and in all of us as one in Him.

CHINESE SECRETARY'S REPORT.
Mrs. Yung (Senior Chinese Secretary) read the following report indicating the work done by the various departments.

Membership.—Our membership committees have done faithful work throughout the year in making regular calls on the members. Whilst emphasis of membership is not on numbers, we are glad to report an increase last year in our membership, the number being 318.

We have followed the plan of former years in arranging for devotional meetings with a view to helping both Christians and non-Christians. There have been two series of devotional talks, 19 in all, with an average attendance of 44.

Bible study groups have been arranged for non-Christians, beginners and leaders, in all 10 groups with an enrolment of 106. AT HOME.

ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE
ASSOCIATION.

FOUNDERS' DAY.

Members of St. Stephen's College Association were at Home to-day to a large number of Chinese and European friends at the Chinese Recreation Club. The weather was ideal for the function and the sports were a source of enjoyment to those who took part in them and those who were simply onlookers. Refreshments were served and there was a little ceremony of speech making. Mr. Ng Sze-kwong, Chairman of the Sports Committee, said it was his privilege to extend a sincere welcome to those present. As he said last year, on a similar occasion, the idea of holding a sports meeting was not to find out the best runner, but to get together the present and past students of St. Stephen's College that they might indulge in a day of healthy companionship and to express in friendly rivalry that spirit of good sportsmanship which is part of the education of St. Stephen's College students.

It was a great pity that to-day being Founders' Day Archdeacon Barnett, one of the founders and first Warden was not present with them, having just gone home on retirement, but he was glad to say that they had a worthy representative in his successor, the Rev. Mr. Hewitt, on whose responsibility they could safely rely for the present and further success of St. Stephen's College. He would like to take this opportunity to assure Mr. Hewitt that, in his work to uphold the tradition of their Alma Mater, he could always depend on the services and support of the past students.

Speaking on behalf of the Sports Committee, he could say that they all felt exceedingly gratified that so many had taken part in the sports this afternoon, especially the ladies, including past and present students of their sister College, an institution which bore a very close relationship to St. Stephen's College, in the sense that, although the one is a boy school and the other a girl school, they both came of the same parentage.

They were exceedingly thankful to Mrs. Sun for so very kindly consenting to distribute the prizes. Mrs. Sun, as some of them know, is a past student of St. Stephen's Girls' College and a sister to Mr. K. C. Lau, one of the best known of our past students. In inviting her to give away the prizes, they could well say that they had someone, whose interest in St. Stephen's College, is very pronounced.

The Rev. W. H. Hewitt, Warden of St. Stephen's College, also spoke.

poses which all members of the community, whatever might be their religious beliefs, should heartily endorse and promote.

What seemed so gratifying to the speaker was that in this institution its objects were not mere empty talk but were carried out to the letter. The Committee of the Y.W.C.A. had worked very hard indeed to promote the welfare of Chinese girls and women in the Colony. Not only did they look to their spiritual, mental and physical well being, but they had also established a hostel, a babies' clinic, a class for the teaching of young girls who would otherwise be unable to obtain any education, and many such social activities which have done incalculable good to the Colony.

Unfortunately, owing to the increase in membership, and the ever increasing activities of the Association, the present premises were found to be sadly inadequate, and they were looking for a suitable site elsewhere on which to erect a large building to meet their requirements. Although he himself was not a member of the Christian Church, he felt it his duty, as a representative of the Chinese on the Legislative Council, to assist in promoting any undertakings which were conducive to the good of the general community, and he considered that the Y.W.C.A. was one of those undertakings. He would therefore urge all, irrespective of creed or race, to come forward liberally to help the Y.W.C.A. in obtaining better accommodation. (Applause.)

The Rev. Kwan Yiu-nam, also addressed the gathering and gave details of the work done amongst the Chinese in Vancouver during his twelve years of missionary work. After an interesting comparison of conditions in that country and those obtaining in China, he elaborated the local Y.W.C.A. on their duties.

CANNY HARRY.

COMES TO CANNY KOWLOON.

TO NIGHT'S GREAT SHOW.

Sir Harry Lauder has the name of being a canny Scot—a fact which, in his now playful little way, he helps to "put across" himself. But he is not the only one who is canny. There are folk in this Colony, especially in Kowloon, who have every bit as keen an eye for the bawbies. These folk will not have failed to note that the admission prices for Sir Harry Lauder's farrow performance in the Star Theatre this evening—the calls for Manila by the "Empress" to-morrow—are the lowest of the entire Far Eastern tour. Besides the canny folk, however, there are many who think that no price is too high to see the great comedian and his clever supporting company. What between the two classes there should be a crowded house this evening; for as mentioned in the morning papers to day, Sir Harry Lauder has returned to the Colony in great fettle, and he may be relied upon to give of his very best this evening, as much because it is his farewell performance in this part of the world as because he must have an innate respect, not to say affection, for folk as canny as himself, added to which, of course, is his usual regard for those who take no account of the price they pay so that they see once again their favourite. But to adopt a less frivolous strain, it must be agreed that local pleasure-seekers owe their warmest thanks to Hongkong Amusements Ltd., for having induced Sir Harry Lauder to renounce his original intention of not giving a performance here on his return trip—not merely that, but also for having made arrangements that permit the farewell performance being given at popular prices. Booking, it might be added, is open at Moutrie's and those intending to be present should lose no time in

LOVE AND FAME.

CORONET THEATRES FINE PICTURE.

Bestriden by the great historical figure of Oliver Cromwell, "The Fighting Blade," which comes to the Coronet Theatre this evening as the feature attraction for the next few days, is a picture which blends fact and fiction so as to heighten the colour of the one and give an air of reality to the other. Richard Barthelmess, so lovable in "Tolable David" and other homey pictures, fills the leading rôle in this great First National film as a dashing young swordsman, possibly the best duellist in all Europe, who sets out to seek love, fame and fortune in the exciting days of the wars between the Cavaliers and the Roundheads. The Fighting Blade—that is his character. What wonder that in such a rôle he meets adventures by the score; that he triumphs in the end over all his enemies and wins the love of a beautiful damsel of high degree, to live like a true hero, happily ever afterwards. A special word must be said for the scenic effects and the acting in this picture. Richard Barthelmess, needless to mention, makes a striking figure as the young Roundhead warrior, while Miss Dorothy Mackall is as beautiful and accomplished as the young countess. Mr. Frederick Burton is a notable Cromwell, and the other rôles are all filled with sterling merit, especially those of the four villainous. The castings, costumes and other technical details are beyond praise. These reach their zenith of splendour in the great ensemble scene of more than five hundred players, which is the climax of the stirring story of love, fame and fortune. The picture is a masterpiece of the Fighting Blade.

PRIZE DAY.

DIOCESAN BOYS' SCHOOL.

PROF. SMITH'S ADDRESS.

The Diocesan Boys' School celebrated their annual prize day yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering. The Right Rev. The Bishop of Victoria presided, and the speaker was Professor J. W. N. Smith, M.A., Professor of Education, Hongkong University.

In opening the proceedings, the Bishop of Victoria regretted that the Rev. W. T. Featherstone (Headmaster) had been unable to be present owing to indisposition, and this was unfortunate especially as this speech day coincided with his birthday. The Chairman then read a passage from the report expressing the thanks of the Headmaster to the Rev. H. du T. Pyner and the staff for the capable way in which the work was carried on during his absence on furlough, and called on the Rev. H. du T. Pyner to present the report.

The fifty-sixth annual report of the Headmaster (the Rev. W. T. Featherstone, M.A.) read in part—

Two years ago we had—as our Visitor and Speaker a representative of the Hongkong Government in the person of the Hon. Mr. E. J. Lyson. Last year we had an Old Boy, the Hon. Mr. R. H. Kotewall. To-day we welcome a representative of Hongkong University in the person of the Professor of Education, Professor J. W. N. Smith, whom I have asked to speak especially to the School. In the future we hope that our relations with the University will be as cordial as they have been in the past.

In 1923-24 we have been very fortunate in having such an able and energetic Hon. Treasurer as Mr. P. S. Cassidy.

We now have five Old Boys on the Staff and two Lady Teachers who were educated at the Diocesan Girls' School.

During the past few years we have been fortunate in retaining the services of four Assistant Masters and one Assistant Mistress on agreement from England; several other members of the Staff have also been on the staff for several years.

The difficulty in increasing salaries and in keeping a Staff together is seen when it is realised that our fees, which are at present quite high enough, cannot be increased, and that the main part of the Government Grants is a Capitation Grant, i.e., so much per scholar in the school. If a system could be evolved whereby the Grant were paid according to the sanctioned salaries of the staff it would greatly assist schools like the Diocesan Boys' School to keep a permanent staff and thus decrease the number of changes and improve the standard of education, and of esprit de corps.

The great lack of esprit de corps in school in the Far East is very largely due to the changes in the staffs in addition to the many local causes for this falling.

POPULAR CONTESTANT.

MISS ROSE LAU, 55, Caine Road.

Miss Rose Lau, one of the popular contestants in the "China Mail" and "Sunday Herald" Campaign, is out to win the first grand prize.

She says that in asking friends to subscribe for the "China Mail" and "Sunday Herald," she is not asking them for a favour; rather she is doing them a favour by introducing to them the two best and liveliest newspapers in the Colony.

She never realised before, she remarked, how much real pleasure could be got from a campaign of this kind. New friends are appearing daily who are anxious to give her their votes and support.

Whether she will walk off with the Buick or not remains for time to decide. One thing is sure, she is going after it in the right way, and her friends are with her in the right spirit.

There had been an improvement in Chinese in the two senior classes, but we would like to see further progress next year.

General.—There has been a noticeable increase of keenness in cricket. Practices have been held four days a week and the results of the interest and energy shown by Mr. Young Saye have been that many more boys have taken up the game with better results in their play.

In football our policy has been to build up a fixture-list of friendly games, and also to carry on the Inter-House competition as usual. The tennis court has been extensively used and some of the boys have developed into reasonably good players.

We have just established an Athletic Committee, composed of members of the Staff and senior boys, for the better co-ordination and direction of the various branches of sport which we may hope to extend much further when we have our own playing fields.

We are grateful to Mr. A. Bower for the great interest he has shown in games and for his work in connection with the Athletic Committee.

School Scholarships.—The Hon. Mr. G. S. Ladd and V. Gittins. The Chan Kai-ning and Arthur A. C. Greaves and Woo Yan-tak. Hongkong University.—Matriculation, Senior and Junior Local Examinations November 1924.—King Edward VII Scholarship.—Loh Meng-choon.

Hongkong Government Education Studentship.—Woo Hing-tak. Honours.—Loh Meng-choon.—Distinction in English, Mathematics, Higher Mathematics and Trigonometry.

Matriculation.—Loh Meng-choon, Cheong Yee-yong (Dist. in Drawing), Cheong Yee-hock, S. V. Gittins (Dist. in English), G. S. Ladd, Reginald Leong, Woo Hing-tak.

Senior Local.—Wong Ping-Chan.

Now we are developing a big scheme for a school in an excellent situation, with its own playing fields, modern equipment and an efficient staff. The maintenance of such a school will be heavy and we cannot expect to meet all our annual expenses out of school fees and the Government Grant. Our school fees are $180 per annum for a day boy compared with other local schools these fees are high. In addition we have an Orphanage attached to the school in which provision is made for a limited number of orphans and really deserving boys who are admitted after a careful scrutiny of their claims.

Thus we appeal for money for endowment as well as for buildings. To those who would inspire in this matter I would say—Go out and see the new site and the buildings now being built; when you stand on the site, look around you; mark well its central position and that it is on a hill about one hundred feet above the level of the road which means that it can never be built in, that it will always have valleys around it and get the breeze from all quarters; see around it the many means of communication and the hundreds of houses now in the course of construction; then think, should test years or two hundred years.

Following the reading of the report, Mr. Tze-wing spoke in Chinese on the subject of (Chinese studies, his forcible speech eliciting much applause.

Another scholar, G. S. Ladd, spoke in English on games. He said: Owing to the shortage of grounds this school has been very much handicapped in all kinds of sport. Through this we were not very successful in any inter-school competition, but we hope this will be remedied when we have removed to our new school where there will be ample ground for all kinds of field games.

More interest has been paid to games this year than in past years, and we hope much more will be paid in the future.

In football we are fortunate to have a strong team this year, and as we had allotted to us the Causeway Bay and the Hongkong Football Club grounds about once a week, we were able to have more practice. On these grounds were played friendly games with other schools, house matches, senior and junior practice games. The house matches have been a great success.

Eight School matches have been played of which three have been won, three drawn, and two lost. Perhaps of the eight the most interesting was the match against the Presbyterian School from Tsimshai in Formosa. One of their senior classes was visiting Hongkong and they asked us for a game, as we have had so many boys from Formosa.

The match was played in November and resulted in a win for us. We hope more matches of this kind may be possible in the future. During the winter holidays we have had many practice games, this shows the interest the boys take in sport.

In cricket, thanks to the keenness and energy of Mr. Youngsaye, an Old Boy, now on the staff, himself all recently a member of one of the University teams, much more interest has been taken than before. During the fifth form general net practice has been held and after school the grounds have had their practice. Through the kindness of the University we have been able to use their ground on several occasions.

Five matches have been played of which two were won and three lost, two of the latter being to senior teams.

The tennis court has been steadily used. Only two matches took place but were won on the staff. Another Old Boy, now on the staff, is now definitely in charge of tennis and under him we may be sure of increased activity in the game.

Our own annual athletic sports were held on the University Ground and in them Lee Ian-tak of Green House secured the most individual points and Brown House won the house championship. In the inter-school sports but little success came our way and what did was due to the efforts of Lee Ian-tak.

WATCH FOR THE PRIZE BUICK TO-DAY.

Did you see it? Want to notice a beautiful, shiny Buick Touring Car on the streets of Hongkong to-day, you will know that it is the first grand prize in the "China Mail" and "Sunday Herald" great prize Campaign. To-day, campaign representatives are calling on as many of the contestants as possible to let them see and take a ride in the beautiful car. The Manager of the Hongkong and Kowloon Taxicab Co., Ltd., Mr. Rowe, spent all morning superintending the shining and polishing of this beautiful product of motor car art, and as it glides noiselessly around the streets many a contestant's heart will flutter with the happy thought that "perhaps that car will be mine."

Someone is going to get that beautiful car absolutely free, and when he or she marches up to the judges on the 4th day of April, and receives the bill of sale he or she will know that work, perseverance, and popularity are the things that have won this beautiful reward.

BONUS OFFER ON THIS WEEK.

With the 300,000 bonus offer in force for the rest of this week it behooves contestants in this race for the beautiful prize offer to make these the busiest days of the Campaign. It takes but three yearly subscriptions to the "China Mail" to make more than the $100 club necessary to secure the extra allowances of 300,000; in addition, of course, to the 15,000 votes allowed on each annual subscription.

great success.

PROFESSOR SMITH'S SPEECH.

The Chairman, next introduced Professor J. W. N. Smith, the speaker for the occasion. In opening his address, Professor Smith said: "It is the common practice of speakers, on occasions such as this, to say how honoured they feel by the invitation. So congenially is the phrase used, that it has become to have about as much meaning as to say 'Good afternoon.' Such is my Western dislike for high sounding phrases thoughtlessly spoken, that I intended to omit this one to-day. But I cannot, because it is true. It is not for me having come but recently to the Colony to tell you why I feel honoured. The merits of your school, the devotion and efficiency of the teachers, the soundness of the education, and the excellence of your results year after year—all these are well known facts here and far from here. I most heartily congratulate all concerned."

Continuing, Professor Smith dwelt on the influence of school years in the shaping of character. The spirit of a school, he said, was fostered in the matter of school games where, though boys were opposed to each other, they could always spare a thought and a word for the good player of the other side. There was no regret by the beaten side and no undue pride on the part of the winners, for both sides had played their best. And in the case of the defeated team where, perhaps some player had not been up to form, his comrades would go and cheer him up as he might perhaps be feeling worried on the score of letting his side down.

When a school is in a good state all the boys are looking for a chance to help each other. The older boys find much more happiness and their own progress is much faster if they give assistance to the younger ones. All must realise that they, and their teachers, are working together for the same purpose—to make a frank, truthful, happy, and energetic life for everybody in the school. That is, a school spirit. The more you give to it the more a school will give you in return.

On the subject of the new school the speaker said that when he had been shown the site and plans by the Headmaster, he was more impressed than he had been by anything since he had left England. There was a faith that could remove mountains and there was something confronting China to-day which required such faith. From her ancient past a new life had to be created and it was only through schools, through the right training of the boys of China that the new life could come to growth.

In this new school, and in the manner of its creation, there was a most brilliant sign of this reconstruction. Generations unborn would look back with gratitude and veneration to those who had conceived this great work for China, to the men who had brought East from Europe, so deep an understanding and so transforming a faith.

AN APPEAL.

In conclusion Professor Smith said: "Let me make an appeal to you, to all the Chinese gentlemen who have at heart the interests of their country and its future. I would say to them just this. You know this school, you know better than I the high aims and high achievement, the ability and the goodwill of those who are now in the midst of progress. I

One thing the contestants should make a point of doing is to carry a copy of the "China Mail" with them continually. Let the prospective subscriber see the paper that he is subscribing for.

CONTESTANTS' PICTURES.

Again the Campaign Manager is issuing the call for contestants' pictures. For the last few days a picture of one contestant has been appearing daily, but the pictures so far received are nearly exhausted. Many contestants have not as yet sent in their photos, and the ones who have not done so are requested to-day to call at the Campaign Headquarters and see Mee Fong, the "China Mail's" official photographer, who will take one free of charge.

Your friends want to see your picture and know you are in the race. Why let a little personal shyness hold you back? The pictures of all prominent people appear in the newspapers. Why discount your own prominence by hesitating to send in your picture?

The prize Chevrolet car purchased from Messrs. W. R. Loxley & Co., is here and is now on display in the show rooms of the West Point Garage. It is a beauty—dark green in colour, beautifully upholstered, and fitted with every convenience possible. Contestants and their friends are invited to call and inspect this beautiful car. Within the next day or so the car will be on the streets, and as many of the contestants as wish, will be given a ride.

for the benefit of your people, and if you can trust my word, as they of one not altogether ignorant of education, believe me, that the scheme of which I have knowledge is more worthy than this of your sympathy and help. (Applause.)

As for you, members of the school, I congratulate you on your opportunity. I hope you realise in some degree the greatness of the effort that is being made on your behalf and I ask you, if I may, to prove yourselves worthy of that effort by doing all you can for each other and for your school and so for the greater and happier China, which is to be. (Applause.)

Mr. V. S. Gittins, in proposing a vote of thanks to Professor Smith, said: "My Lord Bishop, Professor Smith, Ladies and Gentlemen—I am sure that you are all very glad to see Professor John Smith here to-day, who is the Professor of education at the University of Hongkong. We are not always privileged to listen to such an expert on education as we have to-day, and I feel certain that I can speak for the whole school when I say that we all appreciate his coming here this afternoon when he might have been otherwise occupied. There has always been a very close connection between this school and the University. Our pupils have entered for the Matriculation, the Senior and Junior Local examinations since they were started and many of our old boys have studied at the University. A present there are old boys in residence here, of whom eleven have won scholarships, all their names are on that board above the platform. I am sure that we hope that these happy relations between the University and this ancient school (for we are rather ancient when compared with the University) may long continue. There is also another connection to which I would refer, that is the matter of games. Many times the University athletic ground has been lent to us for our sports and cricket matches. We have played the University second eleven three times, and we look forward to the day when we shall be able to invite our opponents to play on our own ground at Kowloon. When we get that ground, who can prophesy what effect it will have on us. We may then even beat the University first eleven."

And now, Ladies and Gentlemen, I have great pleasure in proposing a very hearty vote of thanks to Professor Smith for addressing us this afternoon.

Mr. Yau Yik-hing seconded the vote of thanks, which was carried with acclamation.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman and the Committee was proposed by the Rev. H. du T. Pyner and seconded by Master Wong Sik-kuen. Obeying then called and heartily given.

The gathering adjourned to a playground to witness physical drill and elementary gymnastics by a squad of boys under the instruction of Staff Sergeant Hui.

The various items, including a vaulting horse and parallel bars, were accomplished creditably. One of the vaulting performances was given by a school orchestra during the drill and while the boys were in a squad of boys under the instruction of Staff Sergeant Hui.

A little knowledge is a dangerous thing, etc. The following from Mr. Arthur Mee's "The Children's Newspaper" dated February 14, is at least interesting.

A remarkable figure in Chinese history passes with the death of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, in a Peking nursing home. Chinese politics have been so confused for many years that it is difficult to understand their reason or importance, but there are a few facts that we should record about Sun. His chief claim to fame is the long campaign he waged against the Manchu Emperors, ending with the proclamation of the Chinese Republic in 1911. He was elected the first President, but resigned in favour of Yuan Shih-kai. With the break-up of organised rule, however, he formed five provinces of South China into a practically separate State, with its headquarters at Canton. He stands out as the only man since the revolution who kept his power.

The British Air Ministry on February 17, granted a subsidy of £200,000 to extend the Croydon aviation field.

The Cunard Anchor Liner s.s. "California" on her round-the-world Cruise left Shanghai on 9th inst. for Hongkong and is due here at 7 a.m. to-morrow.

Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, is having a new organ installed. This has been built at Home and is expected to arrive in Shanghai about May 18. Pending the erection of the temporary organ, which has been constructed by Messrs. Moutrie and Co., Ltd., Mrs. A. G. Stephen has lent her Steinway grand piano.

Since the death of Lord Grenfell, rumour is again busy with the names of three or four of our senior Generals to fill the spaces on the list of Field-Marshal. The vacancy which arose through the murder of Sir Henry Wilson has never yet been filled, the last appointment being that of Sir Arthur Barrett nearly four years ago. Lord Rawlinson is expected to be a certainty for promotion, and has well-earned the baton, and in this case his companion in an upward move would, probably be Sir William Birdwood, as a representative of the Indian Army.

At the inquest in Shanghai on the armed robber who was mortally wounded by a police watchman in the Woosung Road affray, the Mixed Court Assessor and Magistrate conducting the inquiry added the following rider to their verdict: "The Court considers that the police watchman is deserving of high commendation for devotion to duty and presence of mind in his action." Three men arrested in connection with the crime were brought before the court on the same day and remanded in custody. It has now been ascertained that a woman accompanied the party and that two of the prisoners arrested in the house in Robinson Road handed her their pistols as well as a quantity of stolen property. The woman is still at large.

WORLD OF SPORT.JIM DRISCOLL.*DEATH OF BOXER WHO SET MODEL.

Jim Driscoll, the well-known boxer, died at Cardiff, early on January 31, after a fortnight's illness.

Driscoll's style was perfect (writes Corinthian), for while standing up in straightforward, manly fashion that made everyone proud to refer to him as the typical British boxer, he had all calmness of mind and the judgment to avoid blows and seldom be out of reach for retaliating.

His methods set a fashion to the British boxing world, and when he was at his best all rising professionals were the better for their imitation of him.

With unusually long reach, owing mainly to his breadth of shoulders, he was the perfect exponent of the straight-left punch, and, following upon Jem Mace, perpetuated what is looked upon as the keystone upon which a championship career must be based.

MODEST FIGHTER.

Never did boxer carry his honours more modestly. When in America, Driscoll defeated Abe Attell, the newspapers in the States were unanimous in proclaiming him as world's champion, even though it was a "no-decision" bout. A referee's decision was illegal then, but so brilliant was Driscoll's display that boxing America proclaimed him to be the finest exponent ever seen.

Driscoll was watching two comparative novices box when a friend said to him: "Picking up a few wrinkles, Jim?" With his Welsh accent, rising on the last syllable of each sentence, he replied: "I always do. When I watch, I learn; either what to do, or what not to do."

It was in 1908-9 that Driscoll's victories in America stamped him as the greatest feather-weight the world had ever known.

LONSDALE BELT.

Returning to Britain, he was given the first contest for Lord Lonsdale's feather-weight belt, he knocked out Seaman Hayes, who had earned the title of "destroyer of champions," in the sixth round. Then he knocked

SPORTSMEN FIRST.BRAIN QUICKENED BY CRICKET AND FOOTBALL.

An advertisement in the Daily Chronicle for a clerk and store checker, "first-class amateur footballer, centre-forward position, an advantage," has caused many people to wonder at the connection between amateur sport and commerce.

This particular job was quickly filled by the promotion of a young man already employed by the company which advertised, and it only remains to be said that he possesses all the qualifications.

"We must not make a fetish of sport," the manager of one large concern told the Daily Chronicle, "though I must confess that, as a general rule, I would rather employ a man who was a sportsman or had been a sportsman."

"I find with both cricketers and footballers that their brain is just as nimble in business hours as it is on the field of sport, and so long as their enthusiasm for the game does not directly interfere with business, I am quite sure they are the best workers. That, at any rate, has been my experience."

out Spike Robson twice, in 15 rounds and seven rounds.

Thus he became the first boxer to make one of Lonsdale belts his own property—three championship wins in less than a year.

When, in 1919, at the age of 38, he was induced to oppose Charles Ledoux, at the time the hardest hitting bantam-weight in the world, he gave an exhibition of boxing that has never been excelled. For nearly 16 rounds he almost toyed with Ledoux.

It was after this display that £1,800 was collected for him on the same evening in the National Sporting Club, for Driscoll had had to return to the ring for monetary reasons.

That was the finish of his career as a principal in the ring. During the war Driscoll was in the Welsh Horse, and rose to the rank of sergeant-major as an instructor on the Army Gymnastic Staff. He leaves a widow and no children.

POLOSTRONG ARGENTINE TEAM COMING

Mr. Lewis Lacey, the Anglo-Argentine polo player who was captain of the English team in last year's international matches in the United States, will return this year with a strong Argentine four, of which he will take command.

The three players to accompany the brilliant Lacey are Messrs. D. and J. Kearney, and C. N. Land, who, although unknown to English polo enthusiasts, are described as quite the equals of Jack Nelson and the Miles brothers seen here in 1922. The team is representative of the Santa Ines Club in the Argentine, and during the last season gave an excellent account of itself in the Lincoln tournaments and the national championships in the Republic.

It is indicative of the keen interest in the game in the Argentine and of the patriotic spirit of the sportsmen of that country that the entire expenses of the forthcoming tour were originally undertaken by the late Mr. Joseph N. Drysdale, who, however, died a few days after the fact of his generosity was made known. Most probably his executors will carry out Mr. Drysdale's undertaking, but, in any case, there will not be wanted other wealthy sportsmen to see that the original plans for the tour are fulfilled. The Argentine Polo Association had already approved Mr. Drysdale's action, and had agreed to the team as representative of the Republic.

The team under Mr. Lacey's captaincy was to leave Buenos Aires on March 4 by the R.M.S.P. Almazora, and to reach England in ample time to get ready for the international championship games to open in London on May 1. It will remain in England until July, when it will go to the United States for the September matches there. Argentine-bred ponies to the number of forty will be brought as mounts, with native grooms to look after them.
